Consent Form

As a Scam Marshal you provide the National Trading Standards Scams Team with information about the suspect mail that you receive and the log that you keep of telephone calls that you receive from the criminals.

The National Trading Standards Scams Team would like to share that information, together with your name and address, with the Information Commissioner's Office to enable them to take appropriate action against those criminals. For us to do that we need your consent.

If you give your consent, please fill in the details below and sign and date.
